MR. WORLDLY WISEMAN

MR. WORLDLY WISEMAN

Mr. Worldly Wiseman is a practical fellow who takes pride in his good judgment and the ability to make sensible decisions that are never too extreme or excessive.

He and his worldly opinions are well known and well respected by all those who call him friend.

Worldly Wiseman talks Christian into believing that his heavy burden can be removed quickly and easily by turning off the Narrow Way and traveling to the Village of Morality, where he will receive help and advice that will make his life more practical, happy, and trouble free.

THE VILLAGE OF MORALITY

THE VILLAGE OF MORALITY

The Village of Morality is a town that lies a short distance off of the Narrow Way. It represents the Ten Commandments and people's desire to gain God's favor by following rules and religious regulations.

CIVILITY

Civility is the handsome son of Mr. Legality. He assists his father in turning pilgrims off of the Narrow Way to make their home in the Village of Morality.

MR. LEGALITY

Mr. Legality runs the Village of Morality. Worldly Wiseman convinces Christian that Legality will be able to remove his heavy burden without all the trouble he is likely to meet along the Narrow Way.

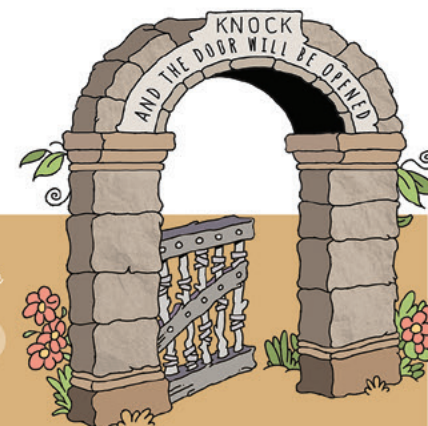

MR. LEGALITY

GOODWILL

GOODWILL

Goodwill is the man who stands guard over the Narrow Gate. When Christian knocks at the gate and admits he is a sinner, Goodwill opens the door with joy and directs him to the Narrow Way.

YOU ARE HERE

THE NARROW GATE is the only entrance to The Narrow Way, which puts pilgrims on the path to the Celestial City. The gate represents Jesus, the only way to the Father, and passing through the gate represents being born again.

Help

So Christian was left to wallow in the Swamp of Despond alone. But he could not get out because of the heavy burden on his back. Then I saw in my dream that a man named Help came to assist him. “What are you doing in there?” Help asked.

“Sir,” Christian replied, “I was told to go this way by a man named Evangelist. He directed me to yonder Narrow Gate that I might escape the wrath to come.”

“But why did you not use the steps?” Help inquired. . .
