Apollyon

THE PALACE BEAUTIFUL

The Palace Beautiful, built at the top of the Hill of Difficulty, brought Christian a wonderful time of peace, fellowship, encouragement, and rest.

EMMANUEL'S LAND

The sisters next bring Christian to the top of the Palace where he sees Emmanuel's Land, a beautiful country filled with hills, valleys, flowers, and refreshing streams.

THE VALLEY OF HUMILIATION

The friends accompany Christian down the other side of the Hill of Difficulty and show him the path that lies ahead along the Narrow Way, the Valley of Humiliation.

In this valley, Christian will be stripped of all human strength, vanity, and pride and will be forced to battle the fiendish dragon Apollyon.

APOLLYON

APOLLYON

Apollyon is a fierce and fiendish dragon who lurks among the shadows in the dark, nightmarish Valley of Humiliation, waiting to devour pilgrims who travel the Narrow Way.

THE KING OF THAT COUNTRY

The evil fiend Apollyon believes himself to be the king of all of that forlorn country and attempts to lure Christian off of the Narrow Way. He even goes as far as trying to convince Christian to give up, turn away from following Christ, and return to his previous life of sin in the City of Destruction.

A DECEIVER

Apollyon is a liar and a deceiver. He has been known by many names over the ages, such as the Evil One, the Father of Lies, the Accuser of the Brethren, Beelzebub, Satan, and the Devil.

SO CHRISTIAN GOT UP TO RESUME HIS JOURNEY

ISAIAH 33:16-17

So Christian got up to resume his journey. His friends took him to the top of the palace and told him to look south. At a great distance he saw a most beautiful country named Emmanuel's Land, filled with mountains, valleys, woods, streams, fruit, flowers, and fountains.

The sisters then brought him into the armory where they clothed him from head to toe in a gleaming, new suit of armor so he would be ready to face any danger he might encounter along the way.

Christian then asked the Porter if he had seen any other pilgrims pass by. "Yes!" he replied. "I saw a man named Faithful, who is perhaps beyond the bottom of the hill by now."

Faithful?
I KNOW HIM!
He is my neighbor!

Watchful, the Porter

Upon hearing this, Christian's heart leapt with joy. So they all agreed to travel on together toward the bottom of the hill.

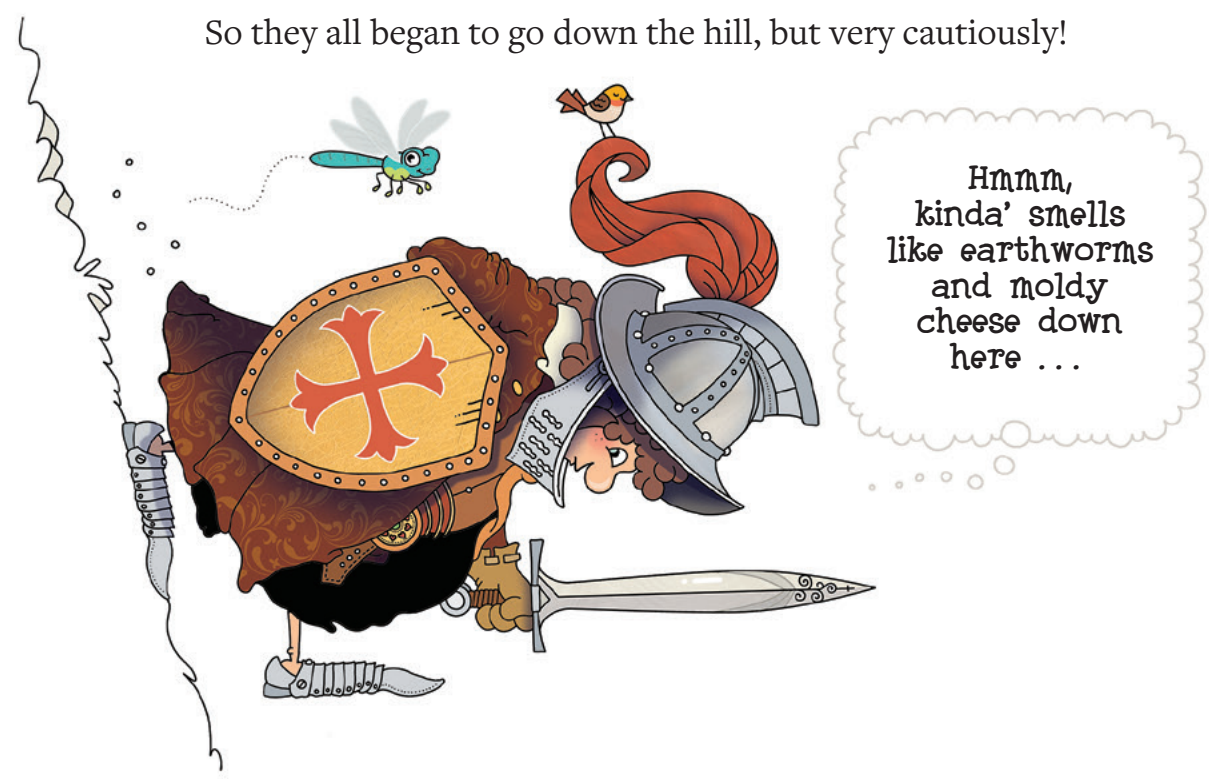

But when Christian saw the path that lay before them, he was terrified and exclaimed, "As it was difficult coming up, I now see it is even more DANGEROUS going down!"

"Yes," Prudence replied. "So it is! For it is a hard matter for a man to go down into the Valley of Humiliation as YOU are about to do."

Wait, WHAT?

So they all began to go down the hill, but very cautiously!

Then I saw in my dream that when they reached the bottom of the hill, Christian's good companions gave him a loaf of bread, a bottle of wine, and a cluster of raisins, then wished him well as he went on his way.
